

Middle/High Programs Survey Highlights*

Junior Achievement of New York

JA It's My Business: Highlights

- 94% of students believed that what they learned would help them be successful in life.
- 94% of students reported that JA made them realize the importance of staying in school.
- 86% of students stated that they were more interested in owning their own business after the program.
- After the program, an increase of 27% more students indicated that they felt in control of their futures.
- 91% of students strongly agreed or agreed that because of their participation, they increased their ability to work in a group.

JA Economics for Success: Highlights

- 85% of students reported that JA made them realize the importance of staying in school.
- 82% of students reported that JA taught them how to manage their money.
- After completing the program, an increase of 15% more students stated that they would set personal financial goals for themselves.

JA Careers With a Purpose: Highlights

- 93% of students stated what they learned in JA was important for their future.
- 87% of students stated that JA connected what they learned in the classroom to real life.
- 78% of students reported that what they learned in JA will help them get a good job.

*Data collected from pre- and post-surveys administered to students across four of JA's gold middle and high school partners.